NEW 'DINING AMONG ROSÉS' AL FRESCO WINE TASTING DINNER ON MIEL "BRASSERIE PROVENÇALE" WATERFRONT GREEN

BOSTON - (July 9, 2009) – On an midsummer night's eve in late July, Miel "Brasserie Provençale", a Provence-inspired brasserie located on Boston's historic waterfront, offers a new outdoor rosé wine tasting dinner, Dining Among Rosés. A typical Provence summer staple, rosé wines are gaining popularity around the world and are a refreshing summertime al fresco beverage in addition to being a surprisingly good food match. This four-course dinner will take place outside on Wednesday, July 22, 2009 beginning at 6:30 p.m. on InterContinental Boston's gardens overlooking Boston's historic waterfront. Tables will be set in the grass for a Côte d'Azur al fresco waterfront dining experience and guests will also have the option of dining picnic-style on InterContinental Boston fleece blankets. The evening will highlight Miel's Provence-inspired cuisine and each course will be paired with a different rosé wine. As a take home treat, SPA InterContinental will be supplying guests with rose-inspired products to sample.

Miel "Brasserie Provençale", a AAA Four Diamond-rated restaurant is located on the waterfront at 510 Atlantic Ave. in Boston, Mass. Reservations are required and can be made by calling 617-217-5151 (limited seating will be available).
